

Mentors Honored by CASP

Who is that special someone who worked with you gave you great advice and figures into the reason why you are a practicing school psychologist?

CASP wants to know who that very special person is.

In an ongoing effort to recognize the contributions mentors have made to the practice of school psychology, CASP has set up this page to honor mentors. Don't see your mentor's name here? You could add him or her to the list. All you have to do is tell us about him or her and why your mentor is so important to you.

Send us an email or send us a note via U.S. mail. Either way is fine. This is what we need to know:

Name of your mentor:

Phone number:

Email address:

Your name:

Phone number:

Email address:

State in 150 words or less why you wish to recognize this person and how they have impacted your professional life:

The information should be emailed to: communications@casponline.org. The information can also be mailed to CASP Mentors, 1400 K Street, Suite 311, Sacramento, CA 95814 or faxed to 916/444-1595.

Mentors will be honored at the annual convention, to be held in Burlingame, March 13-15, 2008. Mentors will be named and receive a special memento at the General Session, which starts at 8:15 a.m. on Thursday, March 13. Let us know by February 25, 2008 if your mentor is going to be at that General Session so we'll know whether to give him or her a shout out. All this, plus, your brief essay on your mentor will appear in an upcoming issue of CASP Today.
